September 28th, 1931.

The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway at 156th Street,
New York City.

Gentlemen:

I return herewith a copy of your very valuable document on United States Half Dimes.

I have no space for filing, and these little books are so meritorious that they ought to go to libraries and specialists.

Will you kindly, therefore, send the copies of your valuable publications to which I am entitled as a member, to some library or specialist.

Very truly yours,

F.K. Curtis
